

The Anglican Military Ordinariate

Cycle of Prayer

A daily handbook of prayer

28 November 2010 - 26 November 2011

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”
Philippians 4:6-7

As that wonderful old hymn “What a Friend we have in Jesus” states: “What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer”.

As we offer our daily prayers, this Cycle of Prayer is intended to be a help in remembering before God our various bases, wings and formations - all military members and their families and indeed all who serve with them. We remember those who are separated by deployments and other duties. As we pray for all chaplains, we particularly remember and pray for all of those in the Anglican Ordinariate and their loved ones. And, of course, you will particularly want to remember the chaplains and people of the particular community in which you serve.

The Prayers from Monday through Friday are framed around the Anglican Communion’s ‘Five Marks of Mission’: To proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom; to teach, baptize and nurture new believers; to respond to human need by loving service; to seek to transform unjust structures of society; to strive to safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth. We are all called to this mission in our particular context and we pray for our sisters and brothers throughout the world who do so in their place of ministry.

I am grateful to Padre Catherine Askew for creating this calendar for us and we do welcome suggestions and particularly, if in the comings and goings, we have missed someone.

Peace and grace to you all.

+Peter
