

I am a life-long Anglican, a priest and a queer person soon to be married. I think the ACC should treat all marriages the same way, either allow clergy to perform them or allow clergy to bless them, without distinction. My strong preference is that we stop performing legal marriages for the state, work for the benefits that marriage confers for all, and bless many kinds of good, nurturing, fruitful relationships in our communities.

The Rev. Laurel Dykstra
St. Catherine, North Vancouver