

Message from the chair, Archbishop David Ashdown

"The Scriptures say 'We, who are many, are one body in Christ and individually members one of another.' - Romans 12:5

No where in the Canadian church is this interdependence in the Gospel more evident than in the way in which we work together to provide pastoral and sacramental ministry to the remote and isolated areas of our vast nation. The work of the Council of the North is truly the work of the whole church by the whole church.

We who minister in the communities of the Council of the North, are grateful to those who walk with us and rejoice in our partnership together."
