Re: Invitation for submissions to the Commission on the Marriage Canon

We are writing to you as members of an Anglican church in Surrey, B.C. Canada.
We want to give our personal feelings and opinions on the Marriage Canon, on the marriage of same sex couples.

We are not in agreement for same sex marriage to be performed in our Anglican churches. Our Churches have been established on the word of God, in the bible, which states in Genesis 1:27-28 God created male and female and blessed their union together. And in I Corinthians 7:2 – each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband.

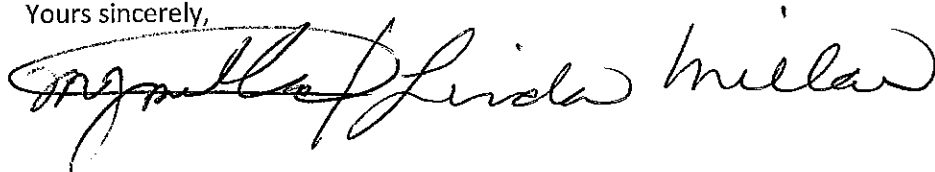

We must honour God's word and obey his word. Marriage under God and in obedience to God Should not allow same sex marriages to be performed or blessed in our churches. Same sex unions should only be performed by the civil law ceremony, which is not under God's authority or blessing.

The church cannot bless a union that is against God's will and plan for marriage union. We must keep our churches and the sacrament of holy marriage sacred and honour God and his word.

So, we strongly recommend that the Anglican Canon law not be changed to allow same sex marriage in our Anglican churches.

May God's will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Yours sincerely,
