

In prayer that God will give you guidance.

On the issue of Canon on Marriage to allow same sex couples to marry in the Anglican faith - we strongly disagree

We have read several versions of God's word and in all of them - marriage was between a man and a woman.

If our faith is Bible based - how then do we pick and choose what suits this day and age. May God give each of you wisdom to see His will in this motion.
