

I have a friend who is Gay. I have known her since we were 3 years old (we are now 60) and I know she has been Gay her whole life. There is not an iota of doubt in my mind that she was born this way. Nothing can change that. She has been married (in a civil ceremony) to her partner for about 3 years now. They are so happy together, a loving, faithful couple in a committed relationship. If they had wanted to be married in the church, why shouldn't they be allowed? I agree with the motion and hope it will be passed.
