It is imperative that the Anglican Church of Canada not succumb to the temptations of society. The Church must stand firm according to Holy Scripture.

We are all sinners and are tempted daily, but in following Christ we resist and when we fail we repent. People in same sex relationships are unable to authentically repent or turn away from their wrongdoing. The Church wants to embrace everyone, as Christ taught, but we cannot embrace everything. Part of the purpose of the Church is to lead people closer to Christ, to love and obey him. Following the guidelines of Holy Scripture is what a Christian Church does. We are not to make up our own guidelines as if we were God.

There is only one who blesses sin and calls it by another name.

Who does the Anglican Church of Canada choose to follow? I choose Christ. I hope you will too.

Sincerely,
Nancy Wilson
