Dear Friends:

According to the teaching of ancient Israel, this commandment governed their behaviour; "Do not practice homosexuality: It is a detestable sin." Leviticus 18, verse 22. (New Living Translation)

After the Incarnation, and when Jesus had grown up and had begun his Ministry, he said, "Haven't you read that at the beginning the Creator made them male and female, and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.'" Mat. 19, verses 4 + 5. (New International Version)

Many of the ills of our society, including slow population growth, are the result of disregarding the teaching of Our Lord Jesus Christ. To reject homosexuality, and uphold the sanctity of marriage between one man and one woman, will pave the way to a much happier and healthier society.

Yours very truly,

(Rev.) Dorothy Thorpe

P.S. I am ninety-two years old. I was a member of the Anglican order of the "Sister of the Church", and lived under a vow of 'Poverty, Chastity and Obedience' for twenty-five years; and have continued to do so. Then I entered Wycliff College and received my 'Master of Divinity' degree. That year I was ordained to the priesthood at Christ Church Cathedral in Whitehorse, Yukon Territory.
