O God, you have claimed us as your own

and called us from our darkness into the light of your day.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia! <sup>1</sup>

Or

O Lord, open our lips

and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

In your resurrection, O Christ,

let heaven and earth rejoice. Alleluia.

Blessed are you, God of our salvation,
to you be praise and glory for ever.

As once you ransomed your people from Egypt
and led them to freedom in the promised land, so now you have delivered us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the loving reign of the risen Christ.

May we, the first fruits of your new creation, rejoice in this new day you have made

'The Song of Zechariah', 'The Song of Moses and Miriam' or 'A Song of the New Creation' may be said or sung.

The Song of Zechariah (Luke 1.68-79)

Blessed are you, Lord, the God of Israel, *
you have come to your people and set them free.

You have raised up for us a mighty Saviour, *
born of the house of your servant David.

Through your holy prophets, *
you promised of old to save us from our enemies,

from the hands of all who hate us, *
to show mercy to our forebears,
and to remember your holy covenant.

This was the oath you swore to our father Abraham: *
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

free to worship you without fear, *
    holy and righteous before you, all the days of our life.
And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, * for you will go before the Lord to prepare the way, to give God's people knowledge of salvation *
    by the forgiveness of their sins.
In the tender compassion of our God *
    the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, *
    and to guide our feet into the way of peace. <sup>9</sup>

Or

The Song of Moses and Miriam (Exodus 15.1b-3, 6, 10, 13, 17)

I will sing to the Lord, for you have triumphed gloriously, *
    the horse and rider you have thrown into the sea.
The Lord is my strength and my song *
    and has become my salvation.
This is my God whom I will praise, *
    the God of my ancestors whom I will exalt.
The Lord is a warrior, *
    the Lord is the divine name.
Your mighty hand, O Lord, is glorious in power; *
    your mighty hand, O Lord, shatters the enemy.
At the blast of your nostrils, the sea covered them; *
    they sank as lead in the mighty waters.
In your unfailing love, O Lord, *
    you lead the people whom you have redeemed.
And by your invincible strength *
    you will guide them to your holy dwelling.
You will bring them in and plant them, O Lord, *
    in the sanctuary which your hands have established. <sup>10</sup>

Or

A Song of the New Creation (Isaiah 43.15, 16, 18, 19, 20c, 21)

'I am the Lord, your Holy One, *
    the Creator of Israel, your Sovereign.'
Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, *
    a path in the mighty waters,
'Remember not the former things, *
    nor consider the things of old.
Behold, I am doing a new thing; *
    now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?

that they might declare my praise.' <sup>11</sup>

The Canticle

'The Song of Mary', 'A Song of Faith' or 'A Song of God's Children' may be said or sung.

The Song of Mary (Luke 1.46-55)

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, *
for you, Lord, have looked with favour on your lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed: *
you, the Almighty, have done great things for me
and holy is your name.
You have mercy on those who fear you, *
from generation to generation.
You have shown strength with your arm *
and scattered the proud in their conceit, casting down the mighty from their thrones *
and lifting up the lowly.
You have filled the hungry with good things *
and sent the rich away empty.
You have come to the aid of your servant Israel, *
to remember the promise of mercy,
the promise made to our ancestors, *
to Abraham and his children for ever. <sup>35</sup>

<sup>35</sup> Evangelical Lutheran Worship (2006), 315 alt.

A Song of Faith (1 Peter 1.3-5, 18, 19, 21)

Blessed are you, the God and Father *
of our Lord Jesus Christ!
By your great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope *
through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled and unfading, *
kept in heaven for us,
who are being protected by your power through faith, *
for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
We were ransomed from the futile ways of our ancestors *
not with perishable things like silver or gold
but with the precious blood of Christ *
like that of a lamb without spot or stain.
Through Christ we have confidence in your, O God,
who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, *
so that our faith and hope are set on you. <sup>36</sup>

Or

A Song of God's Children (Romans 8.2, 14, 15b-19)

The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus *
has set us free from the law of sin and death.
All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God; *
for we have received the Spirit that enables us to cry, 'Abba, Father'.
The Spirit bears witness that we are children of God *
and if God's children, then heirs of God;
if heirs of God, then fellow-heirs with Christ; *
since we suffer with him now,
that we may be glorified with him.
These sufferings that we now endure *
are not worth comparing to the glory that shall be revealed.
For the creation waits with eager longing *
for the revealing of the children of God. <sup>37</sup>

At the end of the Canticle one of the following may be said or sung.

Glory to God, Source of all being, eternal Word and Holy Spirit:

PRAY WITHOUT CEASING
Morning and Evening Prayer for the Seasons of the Church Year

A RATIONALE FOR THE OFFICES

In the years since the publication of The Book of Alternative Services many Anglicans have found a renewed interest in regular and structured daily prayer as a means of ‘praying without ceasing’. This renewed interest, however, was not served well by how Morning and Evening Prayer were laid out in The Book of Alternative Services. A full and satisfying use of the Offices required worshippers to turn numerous times to different pages and then back again. This editorial design meant that many of the riches of the Offices in The Book of Alternative Services were not well-used or even well-known.

Other factors have also influenced Daily Prayer in these first decades of the twenty-first century. First, although The Book of Alternative Services made some strides in more complementary language for God and more inclusive language for people, many contemporary worshippers desired that more progress be made towards language that is ‘faithful and fair’. In this set of offices a balance has been sought between traditional and more inclusive language for God

Second, in 1992 the Society of Saint Francis published Celebrating Common Prayer, a daily prayer book that introduced a new way of structuring the Daily Offices around the liturgical year. This innovative approach, along with a wider selection of canticles and prayers, influenced many Anglicans throughout the world. In 2005 the Church of England published Common Worship: Daily Prayer which provides worshippers with daily prayer for every day of the week in ordinary time and daily prayer for the seasons of the liturgical year. This resource has influenced the work of the Liturgy Task Force in preparing this resource for trial use in the Anglican Church of Canada.

While the structure of Morning and Evening Prayer in The Book of Alternative Services is the foundation of the offices that follow, Common Worship: Daily Prayer has provided both texts and approaches to the offices for each season. Each office is designed so that those who use it for prayer need only move page by page through the office.

May our work enable the people of God pray without ceasing in all times and in all places.

Notes on the Rites

The Gathering of the Community

- Morning and Evening Prayer may begin with either a set of introductory responses based on the seasonal material from The Book of Alternative Services or a set based on Common Worship: Daily Prayer.

The Proclamation of the Word

- The Offices have been designed to be used with the Daily Office Lectionary or the Weekday Eucharistic Lectionary of The Book of Alternative Services. If the Weekday Eucharistic Lectionary is chosen, then the first reading and psalm from Year 1 are used in the morning and the psalm and gospel from Year 2 in the evening. Another resource that may be explored is the Revised Common Lectionary Daily Readings.
- Both The Book of Alternative Services and Common Worship: Daily Prayer have been mined to provide the responsories for the offices.
- In each office a choice of three canticles is provided. In Morning Prayer one may choose 'The Song of Zechariah', the traditional morning canticle, or one of two canticles taken from the Hebrew or Deuterocanonical Scriptures. In Evening Prayer one may choose 'The Song of Mary', the traditional evening canticle, or one of two New Testament canticles.
- The two affirmations of faith from The Book of Alternative Services have been included in the offices. The text of The Apostles' Creed is taken from Evangelical Lutheran Worship.

The Prayers of the Community

- Each office has a litany and a suggested set of intercessions. These suggested intercessions are taken from Common Worship: Daily Prayer.
- The concluding collects are all taken from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers, but the collect of the day is always an alternative.
- The introduction to the Lord's Prayer combines that of Common Worship: Daily Prayer with that of The Book of Alternative Services.

The Sending Forth of the Community

- The concluding sentence are taken from Common Worship: Daily Prayer.
