

Sing A New Creation Copyright and licensing guide

Updated January 2023

Sing A New Creation is a hymnal supplement to the 1998 Common Praise hymnal of the Anglican Church of Canada, created to help communities of worship across Canada refresh and broaden their congregational singing. The collection was convened by the Hymn Book Supplement Task Force for the Faith, Worship and Ministry Committee of the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada and published by Church Publishing Incorporated.

This guide is designed to make copyright and licensing information easier to find and understand, helping worship planners and musicians use hymns legally and responsibly. Respecting copyright honours the work of composers and authors, ensuring that their creative contributions are properly acknowledged. Songs in Sing a New Creation that are covered by CCLI or One License are noted below, while copyright details appear in the book beginning on page 327. Hymns not listed under One License or CCLI require permission directly from the copyright holder, as noted in the book.

Licensing coverage is subject to change. Refer to the information provided by your licensing provider (i.e., CCLI, One License) for authoritative guidance.
