take your place in the councils of the Church. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are to be a model of service, especially among any who are afflicted by poverty, illness or isolation. As (a) deacon(s) in Christ's Church, you are to make Christ's redemptive love known, by your word and example, to those among whom you live and work and worship. Through prayer and preaching, you are to interpret to the Church the needs, concerns, and hopes of the world and the cries of the earth itself, God's creation. You are to accompany those searching for faith and bring them to baptism. At all times, your life and teaching are to show the People of God that in serving the least among us, we are serving Christ himself.

N, the people have chosen you to be (a) deacon(s) in the Church of God and have affirmed their trust in you. We praise God and give thanks for your commitment to serve Christ as (a) deacon(s) in the Church.

You are to serve humbly and joyfully. Remember that the life and work to which you are now called is in God's hands.

to call the people to repentance and to declare God's forgiveness to penitent sinners. In the midst of the gathered community, you are to preside at the sacraments of the new covenant, nourish Christ's people from the riches of his grace and strengthen them to glorify God in this life and in the life to come. With all God's people, you are to tell the story of God's love and baptize new disciples in the name of the Holy Trinity. You are to unfold the Scriptures and to preach the word in season and out of season. You are to love and serve the people among whom you work, caring alike for young and old, strong and weak, rich and poor. Guided by the Spirit, you are to discern and foster the gifts of all God's people, so that the whole Church may be built up in unity, faith, and service.

Bishops are to ensure the continuity of the Church's apostolic ministry. You are called to guard the faith, unity, and discipline of the Church; to celebrate and to provide for the administration of the sacraments of the new covenant; to ordain presbyters and deacons, and to join in ordaining bishops. You are to be in all things a faithful pastor and wholesome example for the entire flock of Christ. You are to lead and equip God's people to grow into the full stature of Christ.

Bishops are to exercise godly leadership in that part of the Church committed to their care. The Church looks to you to promote peace and unity among all God's people, and to encourage obedience to God's word. You are to keep the Church true to its faith, as found in Scripture and the Creeds, to teach this faith and proclaim it. You will take your place in the councils of the Church. With your fellow bishops and with all the faithful when gathered in synods you will share in the leadership of the Church throughout the world.
